

NEW TRIER EXAMINER

Vol. XCIV, No. 2

Friday, November 14, 2014

Due to recent events, this Examiner puts past, present and future student rights issues under the microscope. Historical court cases that have changed schools across the nation are dissected. We also take a look at past student rights articles that appeared in the New Trier News, cover current rules and guidelines, and explore student and administrative views on them.

