

2016 Presidential Election

It's Finally Over

“No dream is too big, no challenge is too great. Nothing we want for our future is beyond our reach. America will no longer settle for anything less than the best.”

-President Elect Donald Trump

Student Reactions to Trump's Victory

“I was sad and then I was angry; I don't know if I've accepted it yet. I want to go out and do more, though. I've signed up to volunteer at Planned Parenthood and I'm looking for other ways to get involved. The one thing I can do is use this to push myself forward and do more”

-Marnina Hornstein, Senior

“Both of them were idiots. I didn't vote for either. Hillary was clearly the lesser of two evils. We have to be optimistic that Trump will do something good.”

-Carter Heisinger, Senior

“I hope that I can be safe along with my family because my family is mainly immigrants and we've gotten through so much. I just hope he doesn't do anything to hurt me and my family.”

-Shawn Patel, Junior

“Either way I think we'll be fine. There are definite issues with Trump such as his pro-life stance and ideas about the environment. But I don't think either him or Hillary would have made much of a difference with foreign policy. They were both pretty poor candidates.”

-Danny Ladik, Senior

“I felt mostly disappointment, and some frustration.”

- Molly Gallagher, Junior

“I was very upset about Trump winning because I disagree with his motives and what he's said. He's also disrespected a lot of people. I don't think it's fair that he's won.”

-Anahi Toolabian, Sophomore

“I was upset by it. I find it to be a setback for women and minorities. It's ridiculous that Mike Pence believes in conversion therapy and that the head of the EPA doesn't believe in climate change.”

-Jacob Imber, Junior

“To all the young women who put their faith in this campaign and in me, I want you to know that nothing has made me prouder than to be your champion.”

-Hillary Clinton
